Are you ready to turn your hobby into a business?

Activity book

This is just an exercise to help you find the things you are good at, things that you enjoy, and help you decide if you want to turn it into a business.

Be honest with yourself. Even if there are things you think you could never do, just write them down. You don't have to fill in all the empty spaces.

Just have fun!

1. First, make a list of hobbies you've tried, want to try, or like.

•
 •
•
•

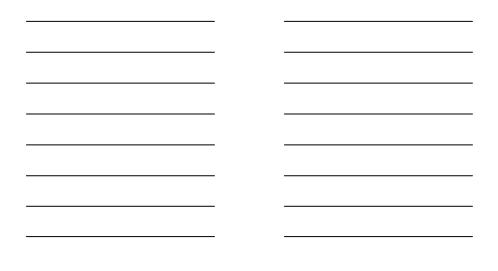

2. Now, make a list of things family, friends, or coworkers say you're good at.

3. Next, list things you know you're good at

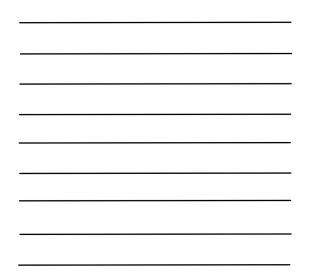

4. Write down the things you love to do.

-
 -
 -
-
 -
-
-
-
_
 _
_
 -

5. Time for some fun! Use colorful markers to highlight hobbies that appear on multiple lists. Use different colors for each hobby that repeats at least twice. List them below.

6. From the list above, pick hobbies you feel confident enough to turn into a business right now:

7. Print the next pages for each business idea and do a little review. This will help you decide if you're ready to turn your creativity into a business.

Enjoy exploring your creative potential! 😊

Business idea:

What would I need to start the business?	Can I do it myself?	How much would it cost?
	·

Skills/resources I already have for this business:

Do I have any worries about starting this business?
Do I feel excited when I thi running this business?	ink a	bout
Can I count on help from r family or friends?	ny p	artner,
Do I feel confident enough business from home while my child/children?
s this realistic/possible for	' me	to achieve?					